

Dear Bob,
 It sure has been
 a lively first year hasn't it.
 What with algebra and all.
 With me mauling off and you doing your work. I sure do hope I get you in some of my classes next semester.
 I think you're a swell guy and here's hopin'
 you have lots of luck and fun this summer.
 Tell next year
 Eddie Lindmark

Dear Bob,
 Thanks for all the help in the class you are really a fun guy and you are a good friend we have. I'm sure had a lot (input) of fun in the class I am sure going to miss all of you kids very much and want to tell you how much I like you all a lot of Jack Bob incerely
 Jack

Dear Bob,
 I hope to see you soon.
 Love
 Jack

My friend
 we want to see you soon to see how you are doing. Love which we shall never forget.

The Senior Class

Dedication . . .

The Tahoma of the class of 1951 is dedicated to a man whose never ending work with the students and faculty is an inspiration to all who know him, Myron L. Carr.

Mr. Carr joined the faculty at Stadium in 1921. After teaching here for eight years, he left to go to Montana. Before returning to Stadium in 1946, he taught in Montana and at Gault and Lincoln in Tacoma, as well as taking time out to serve his country in the Army as an officer.

He has been outstanding as a coach of football and track, as well as a beloved biology teacher.

Montana State College and College of Puget Sound are his alma maters.

We sincerely hope for Mr. Carr's continued good health, happiness and success.

Student Council

President Byron Dodge led Student Council through an extremely active and successful year of projects around school. The other cabinet officers assisting him were Ed Coy, vice president; Betty Frangen, secretary, and Don Chew, treasurer.

One of the first things done this year was the re-establishment of the affiliation with Luisenschule in Dusseldorf, Germany. Don Flora, Bob Lewis, Bev Shotwell and Jennifer Youngman were chosen to head the affiliation committee. All the clubs at Stadium participated in this project and sent books, records and other material that the German students could use. The entire school bought them a phonograph as a Christmas present, and Stadium has received a beautiful painting from them. Student Council also brought two exchange German teachers and a student to visit the school. They were Dr. Dora Wagner from W. S. C. and Dr. Gertrude Gerber and Ingrid Schneider from Garfield High School in Seattle.

Ed Coy and Bev Dobry were co-chairmen of Football Night, one of the year's highlights. All the skits and individual acts were based on the theme, the "Golden Twenties." Joe Turco was M. C. of the show, while Kurt Karmin, Darell Nelson and Ron Tatum were the stooges. Kurt Karmin and Pat Kohl were co-chairmen of the dance afterwards. Stadiana received the skit trophy and Jean Lowman and Gene Johnson took top honors for the individual acts.

Under the guidance of Mr. Streeter, the 35 Student Council members carried out a great number of other projects during the year. The members each spoke for his organization, and together accomplished a great deal for the school as a whole.

Student Council was in charge of the P. A. announcements each morning, and different members were chosen to speak during the year. The selling of Booster Tickets was another successful idea. The funds raised from this drive enabled Stadium to carry on its spring sports program, with the highlight of this campaign, the faculty-Hi-Y basketball game. The members also sold colorful Stadium book covers and license plates to aid the activity fund. In addition the group sent Byron Dodge to a leadership convention at the U. of W., and held a lunchroom-clean-up drive.

They invited the Everett High School Student Council to visit the school and entertained them before the Everett-Stadium football game Nov. 10. Stadium visited Everett in the same manner before the baseball game May 11.

During the spring months everyone in Student Council spent one period a week to help clean up the school grounds, and the entire group worked together to produce their impressive float in the daffodil parade.

Senior Class

A roll of paper, a golden tassel and the lingering strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" put a stamp "finis" in the high school lives of some 300 seniors.

The Senior Class of 1951 has reached its point of no return. But before this point is lost, turn back the calendar to September, 1950, our senior year.

That first week was spent getting reacquainted. Jim DeVore, Senior Class president, and Ron Tatum, vice president; Birney Dempcy, secretary; Pat McCullough, treasurer; Sally Hammond, girls' representative; John West, boys' representative, and Mrs. Graham and Mr. Swarm, advisers, were making plans for the year.

Sadie Hawkins Day had become a tradition; Pat Phillips and Fred Bjorkman were co-chairman for the class of '51.

Gean Lowman, Pat Nichols and Ed Coy were but a few of the Senior Class play stars. Frank Girolami brought home the laurels in the form of money and gifts to the Castle for his oratory.

During the fall Dave Gimlett edited and Lee Garrison managed The World. In the writing field Joyce Maule was busy with The Tahoma.

Girls' Club activities were underway with Peggy Lee directing operations. Marie Jackson, vice president, was the only other senior officer. The various departments were headed by Bev Shotwell, service; Joanne Klasell, welfare, and Diane Gray, social.

Janice Nicholson and Bill Tone were the co-chairmen for the senior sweater dance, "Hatchet Hop." "Journey Starward," the senior ball, was co-chaired by Shirley Campbell and Dennis Zimmerman.

Days were now being counted and co-chairmen of all the seniors affairs were busy making preparations for the closing days. Bev Loska and Bill McKenzie had senior week all set. Ellen Anderson and Norm Lawrence were out scouting talent for the senior assembly.

In the food department Elizabeth Regester and Frank Girolami were preparing menus for the senior banquet. Two seniors, Linnaea Churchward and Margaret Moberg, were also busy with the Girls' Club, Triple S Tea.

Co-Chairmen Donna Bergstrom and Weston Slifer were selected for baccalaureate and the senior gift was announced as a speaker's table and chair. Then graduation at the C.P.S. Fieldhouse.

Class officers of the past were: Ron Tatum, Junior Class president; Don Chew, vice president; Beverly Nelson, secretary; Bob Lewis, treasurer; Peggy Lee, girls' representative, and Jack Hamilton, boys' representative.

Sophomore officers were: Kurt Karmin, president; Ron Tatum, vice president; Bev Loska, secretary; Sally Hammond, treasurer; Peggy Lee, girls' representative, and Larry Meredith, boys' representative.

As the Class of 1951 leaves the halls of Stadium, it remembers that as progress is the law of the past, so the seniors hope to make it of the future.

BING NYSSSEN
President

EVERETT GUST
Vice President

LORNA PERRY
Secretary

Junior

The class of '52 left behind them, for their second time at the Brown Castle, a most successful and eventful year. Capably guiding his classmates through their work was Bing Nyssen as president. Assisting Bing were: Everett Gust, vice president; Lorna Perry, secretary; Adele Summers, treasurer; Ruthy Nichols, girls' representative, and Gary MacPherson, boys' representative. Advising them were Mrs. Hokanson and Mr. DuBois.

"Midwinter Magic," the annual Junior Prom, saw the boys' gym decked with silvery trees. The co-chairmen for this well-arranged affair were Patricia McGavick and Stan Scheyer.

More proof that their class has talent was shown in "Junior Jamboree," the Junior Class assembly, under the co-chairmanship of Joan Joyner and John Triplett.

Literary and business talent was found by the junior cabinet in Anna Mae Hoyt and Dick Hamby when they were selected early in the spring as editor and business manager, respectively, of the 1952 Tahoma. Dick was also active in the field of journalism, as he attained the position of editor in chief of the spring World, with Sandy Shields as his associate editor.

Proof that "people are funny" was found to be true when Dave Ernst and Jim Moeller took comedy roles in this year's opera. Dave drew a romantic lead in the Thespian play with Jim also playing a part.

The only junior making the yell team this year was Rosie Kvernivick as duchess.

Holding a place on Girls' Council were: Marie Harte, Bev Husby, Joan Joyner, Alice Wilson, Katherine Witter, junior representatives, and Sandy Shields and Barbara Wilson from The World. On the Girls' Club Cabinet were Alice Wilson, secretary; Bev Husby, treasurer, and Joan Joyner, fellowship department.

The Junior Class boasts many athletes. Chosen co-captains of next fall's football team were Bob Ehrenheim and Everett Gust. The juniors on the varsitty squad were Forest Anderson, Chuck Arnold, Herold Berlin, Bob Ehrenheim, Everett Gust, Gordy Hersey, Jim Langton, Tony Milan, Bing Nysseen, Bob Patterson, Doug Tenzler, Ron Tipton, Herman Van Zonnevald and Jerry Wilson.

In basketball Norm Borell, Gordy Hersey, Dave Mesler, Tom Names and Dick Sshlosstein were outstanding. Reuben Carlson and Gene Robinson were awarded the honor of being next year,s swimming co-captains. The Juniors of the team were Renben Carlson ,Lyle Gesch,Jim Harris, Phil Henry and Gene Robinson.

Eulene Issacson reigned as sophomore May Queen, and as attendants she had Sharon Parizek and Rosie Kvernik.

To complete a full year of activities, the juniors sponsored the annual "Farewell to the Seniors" Dance, honoring the graduating seniors. Mitzie Pinch and Dick Schlosstein were the co-chairmen. And thus the juniors brought to a close a well-begun year with the promise for an even better senior year.

Both individually and as a class, the sophomores have made many important contributions to all phases of school life this year.

The Sophomore Class sponsored two cookie sales to raise money for World and Tahoma pictures. In May they held a three-day food sale. The first day, cookies were sold; the second day, cupcakes, and the third day, homemade candies. The money raised was given to the school activity fund.

With Myrt Troseth and George Weurch as co-chairmen, the sophomores presented "Carnival," an excellent talent assembly, for the school.

The sophomore cabinet met about twice a month to discuss business and plan their activities. These class officers were Mack Gordon, president; Don Weber, vice president; Jean Weigel, treasurer; Pat Browne, secretary; Marney Coy, girls' representative, and Bob Roberts, boys' representative. Their advisers were Miss Hertzberg, Mr. Walter and Mr. Ettinger.

Climaxing their activities for the year, the sophomores held their annual May Dance, at which the traditional Sophomore May Queen was seated in a throne and crowned. Connie Farmer and Dick Nyssen were co-chairmen of the dance, which followed the theme "Wishing Wonderland."

Commencement Speakers

KATHLEEN GUERNSEY
PAT McDONAGH
ELIZABETH REGESTER

Chosen to speak at Stadium's 1951 commencement were Kathleen Guernsey, class valedictorian; Patricia McDonagh, salutatorian, and two outstanding boys in the class, Byron Dodge and John West.

Kathleen Guernsey has been president of Shield Honor Society, co-chairman of a Howdy Dance, secretary of Thespians, an oratorical contest winner and in Football Night. She has been a member of National Thespians, Triple S, and Science Club.

Patricia McDonagh was president, vice president of Thespians and associate editor of The World; in Student Council, the opera, the special chorus, Carolers, concert chorus, Glee Club and the Senior Class play.

Byron Dodge was both Student Body president and vice president, and president of both Torch Hi-Y and Hi-Y Cabinet. He was co-chairman of the Sophomore May Dance and was chosen to attend Boys' State and the Hi-Y Legislature. Byron also ushered at commencement and baccalaureate and was in varsity and reserve wrestling and the honor roll.

John West has been senior boys' representative to Student Council, co-chairman of the Farewell to Seniors Dance, vice president of Stadium Hi-Y, and ushered at commencement and baccalaureate. He also participated in varsity football, Student Council and Big S.

Forty-five students of the class of 1951 made at least a 3.2 grade point average through the three years. The 14 boys and 31 girls were thus eligible for the senior honor roll.

Baccalaureate services took place Sunday, June 3, and commencement exercises were held June 6 in the fieldhouse of the College of Puget Sound. Wearing the traditional blue caps and gowns, the 356 students of the Class of 1951 were formally graduated.

1950 Award Winners

A number of graduates at the 1950 commencement exercises were honored with awards and scholarships. Miss Forbes presented a total of 37 scholarships to 19 girls and 16 boys.

Gerald Beardsley received the Richard Graff Memorial Award, because he best portrayed the highest example of good sportsmanship and top scholastic achievement. Margaret Clinton was honored as the fifth girl to have her name inscribed on the Janet Hufford Memorial Award plaque in the front hall. This honor is awarded on the basis of friendliness, cooperation and loyalty to Stadium.

Carole Lee Sahlin was given the Phil and Grace Garland music award because of her outstanding contribution to the musical life of Stadium. The Roberta and Marilyn Powell journalism award was presented to Charlene Boutinen for her superior work in the field of journalism.

The Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award was won by Andrew Thompson. Hugh Bradley, Garold Gray and Donn Spencer were awarded N.R.O.T.C. scholarships. The Dartmouth scholarship was bestowed upon Frank van Aalst.

Judson Smith Ball was the recipient of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology freshman scholarship, and receiving the Principia Patrons Competitive scholarship was Janet Ruth Christoferson.

The Stadium Student Council presented a scholarship to Al Cox, and Mary Ellen Long was given the Stadium Girls' Club scholarship. Betty Lockstone was awarded the Stadium P.-T.A. scholarship, while the winner of the Women's Club of Tacoma scholarship was Bonnie Boze.

Other scholarships presented were: Pacific Lutheran College, Charles Anderson; College of Puget Sound music scholarships, Joanne Ruth Olson, Martha Wright Presba and Nancy Rodman; Nellie Martin Carman, Ruth Nicholson; Pacific University, William Van Horn; Seattle Pacific freshman scholarship, Paul Lobdell; Central Washington College of Education, Patricia Jean Kinsman; Delta Kappa Gamma prospective teachers scholarship, Maris Vendla Anderson; Western Washington College of Education prospective teachers scholarship, Ann Cox; Ada L. Girls' Club

The past year has witnessed the never-ending duties of Girls' Club. Teas, candy sales, talent shows and assemblies kept the club busy throughout the year.

Peggy Lee, president, was assisted by her officers: Marie Jackson, vice president; Alice Wilson, secretary; Beverly Husby, treasurer, and Miss McCulloch, adviser.

An assembly was held in the fall to acquaint sophomore girls with the duties of the four departments.

Social department was headed by Diane Gray, with Jean Trovani as sub-chairman. The theme of the annual Girls' Club tolo, held during the Valentine season, was "Heart's Desire." Karen Klopfenstein and Margaret Corbett acted as co-chairmen.

Marjie Bragdon and Diane Dorman produced an entertaining talent show in the fall. A mixer was held for new girls at the beginning of the year with Lee Davis and Darlene Blaszk as co-chairmen. Social department had charge of the Triple S - Girls' Club mothers' tea and the annual notebook sale. Mrs. Hokanson was adviser of this department.

Bev Shotwell commanded service department through a fruitful year. Ann Mader had charge of the programs for the annual Turkey Day game. Service furnished Christmas stockings and Easter baskets for underprivileged children. Girls were also sent to the Day Nursery and the Community House. Pat Kohl was sub-chairman, while Miss Sohlberg was adviser.

Welfare department, directed by Joanne Klassell, furnished big sisters for sophomore girls. Lee Davis and Mable Baldwin were co-chairmen of Christmas decorations. The "Castle" was transformed into Christmas in foreign lands. "Welfare" cleaned the silverware and the trophy cases and provided P.-T.A. teas. Linnaea Churchward was sub-chairman, with Miss Forbes as adviser.

Row 3: Junice Ates, Jean Trovani, Katharine Witter, Sandy Shields, Marie Harte, Verna Westerdahl, Clara Mattson, Jolita Graham.

The Memorial Day assembly, one of the most impressive of the year, was arranged by Joan Joyner, head of the fellowship department. Sub-chairman was Junice Ates and Miss Sanders supervised the group. The girls sent get-well cards to sick students, greeting cards to the faculty, provided yarn dolls for the Thanksgiving Day game and checked white blouses every Wednesday. Each department had charge of candy sales and teachers' teas during the year.

The All-School Carnival originated this year in Girls' Council. Pat McCullough was elected in Girls' Council to co-chairman the affair with Birney Dempcy.

Representatives to Girls' Council from the Senior Class were Margaret Corbett and Virginia Rucker, while Sandra Shields, Marie Harte, and Katherine Witter represented the Junior Class. Jolita Graham, Clare Mattson and Verna Westerdahl were the three sophomores elected.

Barbara Evensen and Barbara Willson were reporters for The World, and Janet Vroman was publicity chairman. Donna Lillis had charge of the Girls' Club room.

Members of Triple S Cabinet were: Linnaea Churchward, vice president; Elizabeth Regester, secretary; Beverly Nelson, president, and Margie Berry, treasurer.

Triple S

Stadium's Supporting Spirit has again accomplished many things to prove that Triple S is indeed a service club. With the aid of Mrs. Burt, adviser, their activities have been numerous. As an honorary club for outstanding girls, it is every girl's desire to be a member.

Officers this year were: President, Beverly Nelson; vice president, Linnaea Churchward; secretary, Elizabeth Regester, and treasurer, Margie Berry.

Triple S co-sponsored the Howdy Dance with Kathleen Guernsey as co-chairman with Bill Nichols. Preceding the opera in March, Ann Mader and Barbara Espeland were co-chairmen for "Fantasia," the annual cotton and cords tolo. To finish the year of such activities as ushering, dances, having a booth in the Girls' Club carnival and a skit in football night, Margaret Moberg was co-chairman with Linnaea Churchward for the annual joint tea for the mothers and teachers in May.

Sahasa

Sahasa, Stadium's Y Teen club, completed an active and successful year. The popular club was headed by Jennifer Youngman, president, with Selma Nelson as vice president; Bev Loska, secretary, and Doris Mardesick, treasurer. The cabinet was composed of the following heads of the various committees: Publicity, Pat Phillips; social, Diane Gray; personal relations, Mary Morris; religion, Anna May Hoyt; vocations, Bev Nelson; service, Jackie Jones; membership, Lorna Perry, and arts, Diane Dorman. Marjie Bragdon served as senior representative to Interclub, while Carol Streeter and Jolita Graham held the offices of junior and sophomore representatives.

Fall found Sahasa members attending the annual semi-formal held this year at Lakewood. Jane Wilhelmi and Jo Ann Johnson were co-chairmen of "November Nocturne."

The annual Spring Style Show, sponsored by Peoples Store, was presented to Sahasa members in March. Chairman of the affair was Mary Morris.

Delegates to the mid-winter conference journeyed to Spokane, selected as the meeting place for the annual event. Representatives were chosen from Sahasa on the basis of their participation in various service projects throughout the year.

One of the prettiest dances of the year, the Sahasa Rose Dance, was presented on May 22. Diane Gray and Marsha Davis were honored as co-chairmen of the tolo. Bev Loska reigned as queen throughout the festivity, with Dorothy Lumm as junior attendant and Ann Wilde as the sophomore attendant.

Programs of common interest were held occasionally during the year, while entertainment was plentiful at every meeting.

Row 4: Val Ates, John Wallerich, Ron Schermerhorn, Tom Falk, Jim Thompson, Bruce McDonald, Mike Matern, Dick Glein, Steve Reed.

Royal Hi-Y

Under Bob Lewis' leadership, Royal Hi-Y completed another active and successful year.

The group donated money earned by shining shoes to the Red Cross, and collected funds for the March of Dimes. The Hi-Y collected a large sum of money and contributed it to the American Cancer Society in memory of Charles Healy, a member who recently passed away.

Officers for the fall semester were: Bob Lewis, president; Monte Powell, vice president; Bill McKenzie, secretary; Jack Hamilton, treasurer; Reuben Carlson, chaplain, and Doug Tenzler, sergeant-at-arms.

The spring cabinet was composed of Bob Lewis, president; Jim Nelson, vice president; Warren Brown, secretary; Jack Hamilton, treasurer; Frank Seal, chaplain, and Doug Tenzler, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Pratt was the club's school adviser, while Charles Howe and Buster Brouillett acted as outside advisers.

Stadium Hi-Y

Launching the lunchroom-cleanup campaign and collecting writing paper to be sent to the soldiers in Korea were two of Stadium Hi-Y's biggest projects this year. They also held two successful dances and donated some $50 to the World fund.

Their spring social calendar included a cruise and their annual house-party at Camp Seymour.

Leading the activities in the fall were: Ron Tatum, president; John West, vice president; Bill Nichols, secretary; Bing Nyssen, treasurer, and Herman Van Zonneveld, sergeant-at-arms.

Spring officers were: Kurt Karmin, president; Dick Scholsstein, vice president; Earl Steen, secretary; Ron Northstrom, treasurer, and Gary MacPherson, sergeant-at-arms.

Big S

The Stadium Lettermen's Club continued to be of service this year and uphold its splendid record, established throughout the 23 years of its existence. The cleaning up of the bowl and the school grounds and the raising of money for the athletic fund were just a few of their many projects for the year.

Big S is a club composed of the varsity lettermen who have a "C" average or better, with its general purposes to be of service to Stadium and improve the school and its school spirit.

Holding offices during the fall semester were: Jim Nelson, president; Bob Powell, vice president; Everett Gust, secretary; Ray Boyle, treasurer, and Gordy Hersey, sergeant-at-arms. Officers for the spring semester were: Bob Newton, president; Jim Nelson, vice president; Bob Lewis, secretary; Bill Nichols, treasurer, and Weston Slifer, sergeant-at-arms.

Debate Club

All year Stadium debaters met with teams from other schools in and around Tacoma to discuss and argue the question: Resolved, that the federal government of the United States adopt a substantial expansion to the welfare state.

The teams attended the annual College of Puget Sound High School Forensics Tournament March 8, 9, and 10 to meet with debaters from all over the state. Janice Tennant reached the finals in extemporaneous speaking.

Other activities of Debate Club were a successful dance after a game and their annual banquet in April.

Officers this year were: Lee Garrison, president; Sue Humiston, vice president; Win Jaeger, secretary, and Frank Johnson, treasurer. Mr. Albrecht and Mr. Simpson were the advisers.

Ski Club

"Skiing's great in Washington!" Many a ski clubber found that out this year, when he traveled to any of the favorite spots, such as Chinook, Stevens or Paradise Valley.

Ski Club tried to promote better skiing by showing a movie on the subject. Ski Club also tried to promote a bus to the slopes. Although unsuccessful, it was hoped that this bus would one day be realized.

Officers elected for the fall semester were: Aldridge Pease, president; Steve Tudor, vice president; JoAnn Johnson, secretary, and Norm Gerber, treasurer.

Second semester officers were: Bill Nichols, president; Elizabeth Regester, vice president; Linnaea Churchward, secretary, and Norm Gerber, treasurer.

Science Club

"Want to buy a lion's head?" No, Stadiumites haven't gone cannibalistic, it's just Science Club's ingenious way of raising money for Tacoma's zoo fund. These lion head tags, sold by Science Club members, netted $45 in contributions.

This was Science Club's main project for the year. However, their meetings featured outstanding speakers from both faculty and student groups. Movies and slides were also a main part of the year's activities. A scrapbook for the German affiliated school was based on information about Washington State and Tacoma, and was sent at the close of school.

First-semester officers were: Don Flora, president; Brian Cary, vice president; Donna Lillis, secretary, and Linnaea Churchward, treasurer. Brian Cary was elected president for the spring semester. The rest of his cabinet consisted of: Donna Lillis, vice president; Marian Lister, secretary, and Gary Nickerson, treasurer.

Studying the most important and popular Book in the world, members of Christian Fellowship Club have had various ministers speaking to them on the ways of the Bible.

A joint meeting with Lincoln was held at the beginning of the year to acquaint students with their Fellowship Club.

Officers for this year were: President, Eleanor Martin; vice president, Audrey Franzen, and secretary-treasurer, Lois Herzog.

Pep Club

Pep Club concluded another successful year as supporters of school spirit. Pep Week, under the co-chairmanship of Bev Loska and Jack Hamilton, was greeted with enthusiasm by the student body. Joann Johnson and Bill McKenzie were co-chairmen of the parade, which ended Pep Week with a flourish. The Pep Assembly was supervised by Dar Blazak and Stan Scheyer, while June Otto and Warren Brown were active in conducting plans for the Pep Club dance, "Cranberry Shuffle." The annual rally and bonfire was held outside the C.P.S. fieldhouse.

Officers for the year were Monte Powell, president; Norman Gerber, vice president; Darlene Blazak, secretary; Bob Andersen, treasurer, and Dave Ernst, sergeant-at-arms.

Shield Honor Society

Although Shield Honor Society has been organized for only a year, it is fast becoming one of the important clubs at Stadium. Under guidance of Mr. DuBois, adviser, the 70 members have been extremely active this year.

Their big project was their assembly, which they hope to make an annual affair, held in April. They also had a booth in the Girls' Club carnival and have been correcting papers for teachers.

Fall officers were: Monte Powell, president; Pat Phillips, vice president; Ann Mader, secretary; Elizabeth Regester, treasurer, and Kathleen Guernsey, membership chairman.

Leading the club in the spring were: Kathleen Guernsey, president; Rosalie McGavick, vice president; Ruthy Nichols, secretary; Gene Nelson, treasurer, and Carolyn Wahlberg, membership chairman.

Art Club

The newest of the clubs this year at Stadium is the Art Club. Under the supervision of Lynn Hale, their president, and Miss Hertzberg, their adviser, this club's aim is to promote interest for those who enjoy art.

Besides supporting advertising and decorations for school activities, they also have projects of their own — painting and ceramics, which they do up in room 402.

Assisting as officers for this first year were: Vice president, Lydia Mechkoff; secretary, Karin Anderson; treasurer, Chuck Kruger, and sergeant-at-arms, Ken Karpack.

Quill and Scroll

"Sophomores, don't you want to buy an 'S' book?" That was the familiar cry that rang through the halls that first week in September. Each year Quill and Scroll helps edit the handy information booklet for the benefit of the sophomores. Editor in chief for the 1950-51 edition was Pat Phillips.

In order to support the activity fund Quill and Scroll sponsored a dance, "Groundhog's Retreat," after a game, net receipts totaling nearly $55 were given to the activity fund.

Nearly a dozen new members, who had kept their grades to a B average and had done outstanding work in journalism, were accepted as new members in the fall.

Directing the group during the first semester were: Pat Phillips, president; Margie Berry, vice president; Shirley Barnhart, secretary, and Linnaea Churchward, treasurer. Officers for the spring were: Shirley Barnhart, president; Chuck Snyder, vice president; Margie Bragdon, secretary, and Joyce Maule, treasurer. Mrs. Cook acted as adviser.

The thrilling finale of "Masquerade" . . . ermine-trimmed posters advertising "The Royal Family" . . . the mysterious "Cat o' Nine Tails"—were high points in the school year.

Opera

Suspense, comedy, mystery and romance all combined to make Stadium's thirty-ninth annual musical production, "Masquerade," which was presented March 15, 16 and 17 in the school auditorium. A modern three-act production with words, music and dialogue by Stadium's music director, Mr. Johnson, it consisted of seven dancing acts and 21 musical numbers.

Gean Lowman delighted three audiences with her lovely soprano voice. She portrayed Betty Holt, a young private secretary who was engaged in finding out the past of Jan Jackson for employer Mr. Colyer.

Jan Jackson was characterized by Wayne Hogan. Jan was the questionable young man who was believed to have let out the secret of the new aircraft being built by the Colyer Company for the government and who was the object of Miss Holt's search.

Nancy Wilhelmi as Wilma Coyler, a lovable vamp, and Bob Roberts as Paul Brooks, a wealthy socialite who is courting Wilma, were the secondary leads.

Sharing the comedy honors were Jim Moeller as Bill Huff, a young lawyer, who always made love to every girl he saw; Bill Larkin as Kane, a detective, and Dave Ernst and Norman Sorenson as Kash and Kerry, respectively, Kane's assistants.

Gay and colorful dance routines were originated and under the supervision of Jackie Johnston. Those that composed the dancing chorus were Mary Jane Algeo, Claudia Cochran, Norma De Hann, Joann Ford, Dianne Gray, Genevieve Johnstone, Ken Karpack, Marilyn Olson, Gloria Sideres and Jackie Wellentin.

The main event of the orchestra every year is accompanying the opera. Playing for the soloists, choruses and also the dancing chorus and under the direction of Mr. Johnson, the orchestra did a commendable job.

Much of the success of the opera should be accredited to the capable work of Mr. Evans, dramatic coach, and Mr. Johnson, who labored many hours on the opera.

"Cat o' Nine Tails"

THESPIAN PLAY

"Cat o' Nine Tails," a fast-moving combination of mystery, comedy and romance, was the Thespian Spring Play this year. It was most successfully produced in the record time of four and one-half weeks, and presented May 11.

James Gordon (played by Woody McClellan) brought his family to the Gordon Lodge in the forest for a vacation. He is guarding some valuable papers from foreign agents. His aristocratic, nervous wife was well done by Janice Tennant. The romantic leads in the play were Dave Ernst as Jim, the Gordons' son, and Joanne Olding as Betty, charming daughter of the old caretaker, Jacob Weber (Ed Coy).

Alice Gilbert played Theodora Maitland, who was also interested in Jim and had the advantage of a fine social background. A detective hired by Mr. Gordon is Mr. Fox (Jim Moeller), who provided much comedy in scenes with Miss Smith, a female detective played by Challis Smith.

The mysterious, elusive Cat o' Nine Tails, an international spy, turns out to be Henry, the Gordons' moronic chore boy. He was excellently portrayed by John Binns. Other Thespians in the cast were Eleanor Martin, who played the Irish cook with a miraculous brouge, and Joan Smith, Bridget's young daughter Peggy.

Under the tireless direction of Mr. Evans, Thespian adviser, the cast produced a thoroughly entertaining play for the school. Many other Thespians proved essential to the production in their work on the various committees, headed by Mary Ellen Jones, ushers; Margaret Corbett, business manager; Gerrie Chase, properties; Carol Buckner, costumes; Helen Raedisch, programs; George Weeks, backstage; Lydia Mechkoff, publicity, and Mary Ellen Jones, make-up. Prompters for the show were Margie Berry and Dorothy Oberg.

Pat Nichols, Ed Coy, John Chapman and Gean Lowman.

"The Royal Family"

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The comedies and tragedies of the Cavendishes, a theater family much like the Barrymores, were excellently portrayed in this year's Senior Class play, "The Royal Family."

Pat Nichols as Julie Cavendish, an actress in her prime, and Gean Lowman as her mother Fanny Cavendish, a retiring grand lady of the theater, both gave wonderful interpretations of the leads.

Ed Coy "brought down the house" as Tony Cavendish, Hollywood's ladies' man. The family manager and counselor, Oscar Wolfe, was well done by Charles Kruger.

Pat McDonagh and Jim Nelson added a romantic interest as Julie's daughter Gwen and her fiance, Perry Stewart, while Kitty and Herbert Dean, the bothersome relatives, were amusingly portrayed by Win Jaeger and John Chapman.

Margie Berry as Della, an efficient maid, and Kurt Karmin, who was Jo, the perfect butler, were both well cast. Completing the cast were Bill Larkin as Julie's fiance, Bob Grunwald, Phyllois White and Jack Hamilton.

The play could not have been so successful without the aid of the many committee members backstage. And standing behind the entire production was Mr. Evans, who proved his ability as a director.

Tigerannas

Mud and rain during most of football season didn't stop the Tigerannas, who marched at every home game, from completing another successful season. Giant flags, rocking chairs, feathers, fireplaces and other varied routines were worked out during the year, with Mr. Delwin Jones directing and advising the group.

Highlighting the year was a trip to Seattle to march in the half-time activities of the Seattle Prep game.

"Tiger Trot," with Beverly Loska and Ruthy Nichols as co-chairmen, was the name of the annual Tigeranna dance held Oct. 9.

Another money-raising project was the selling of pencils with the basketball schedule on them. Later in the year Tigerannas contributed to the Cancer and Activity Funds.

Selma Nelson headed the group this year and the other officers were: Marie Jackson, vice president; Janie Wilhelmi, secretary, and Beverly Nelson, treasurer.

TIGERANNA CABINET

Yell Team

Backing the team and leading the fans was the 1950-51 yell team. Dick Norlin as king and Marilyn Hull as queen led the rest of the sextet in cheering the teams on to victory.

Ever present were Dukes Larry Norlin and Joe Turco, while Marlene Ballew and Rosemarie Kvernvik served as duchesses. The position of duke was placed in the hands of Kurt Karmin after Joe Turco left school in the spring to join the service.

Row I: Larry Norlin, Marlene Ballew, Kurt Karmin, Rosemarie Kvernik. Row II: Dick Norlin, Marilyn Hull.

MAJORETTES

Eulene Isaacson, Carol Semmern, Jackie Johnston, Peggy Lee, Jennifer Youngman.

Drum Majorettes

Twirling their way to fame, the drum majorettes marched at the football games this year. Jackie Johnston was the head majorette, and with Peggy Lee, Carol Semmern and Jennifer Youngman, led the band and Tigerannas at every game, rain or shine. Eulene Isaacson was unable to march with the majorettes except at the annual Turkey Day game.

Concert Chorus

Singing as a special chorus in the opera, for school assemblies and commencement, the 82 members of the Stadium Concert Chorus have spent an active year.

Their officers were Ed Coy, president; Bob Roberts, vice president, and Eva White, secretary-treasurer.

Few students realize just how active the band is. Under the direction of Mr. D. Jones, they performed during the halftime at all football games played here in Tacoma and also traveled to the Seattle Prep game in Seattle. They also played at basketball games, and at the Memorial Day and graduation exercises.

Each year they also participated in the district band contest sponsored by the Music Education Conference, march in the daffodil parade and present their annual spring concert.

Officers for the year were: Manager, Bill Larkin; president, Norman Lawrence; librarian, Jo Ann Sprague; senior representative, Bill Larkin; junior representative, John Triplett, and Brian Nurdling as drum major.

Girls' Glee

A selected group from the Girls' Glee was chosen as the Stadium Christmas Carolers to sing for Tacoma stores and civic groups during the holiday season. All of the 99 members of the Girls' Glee participated in the opera and school assemblies.

The group chose as officers Bev Loska, president; Nancy Wilhelmi, vice president, and Joan Scott, secretary-treasurer. Their accompanists were Betty Anderson, Pat Potter, Elaine Jensen and Anita Arnade.

Boys' Glee

Composing Stadium's best male voices, the 47 members of the Boys' Glee sang in the opera and assemblies throughout the year.

The officers were Bob Roberts, president; Dick Norlin, vice president, and Larry Norlin, secretary-treasurer.

National Thespians

"Are you a National Thespian?" A "yes" to the question will certainly bring you reverence from all aspirants.

For, to become a member of the national group, one must have taken a class in dramatics, must have been in a public performance and have participated in club meetings, which includes directing a play.

As belonging to any national group brings a certain amount of glory, it is natural that each year more people become interested in gaining membership in National Thespians.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

Thespians

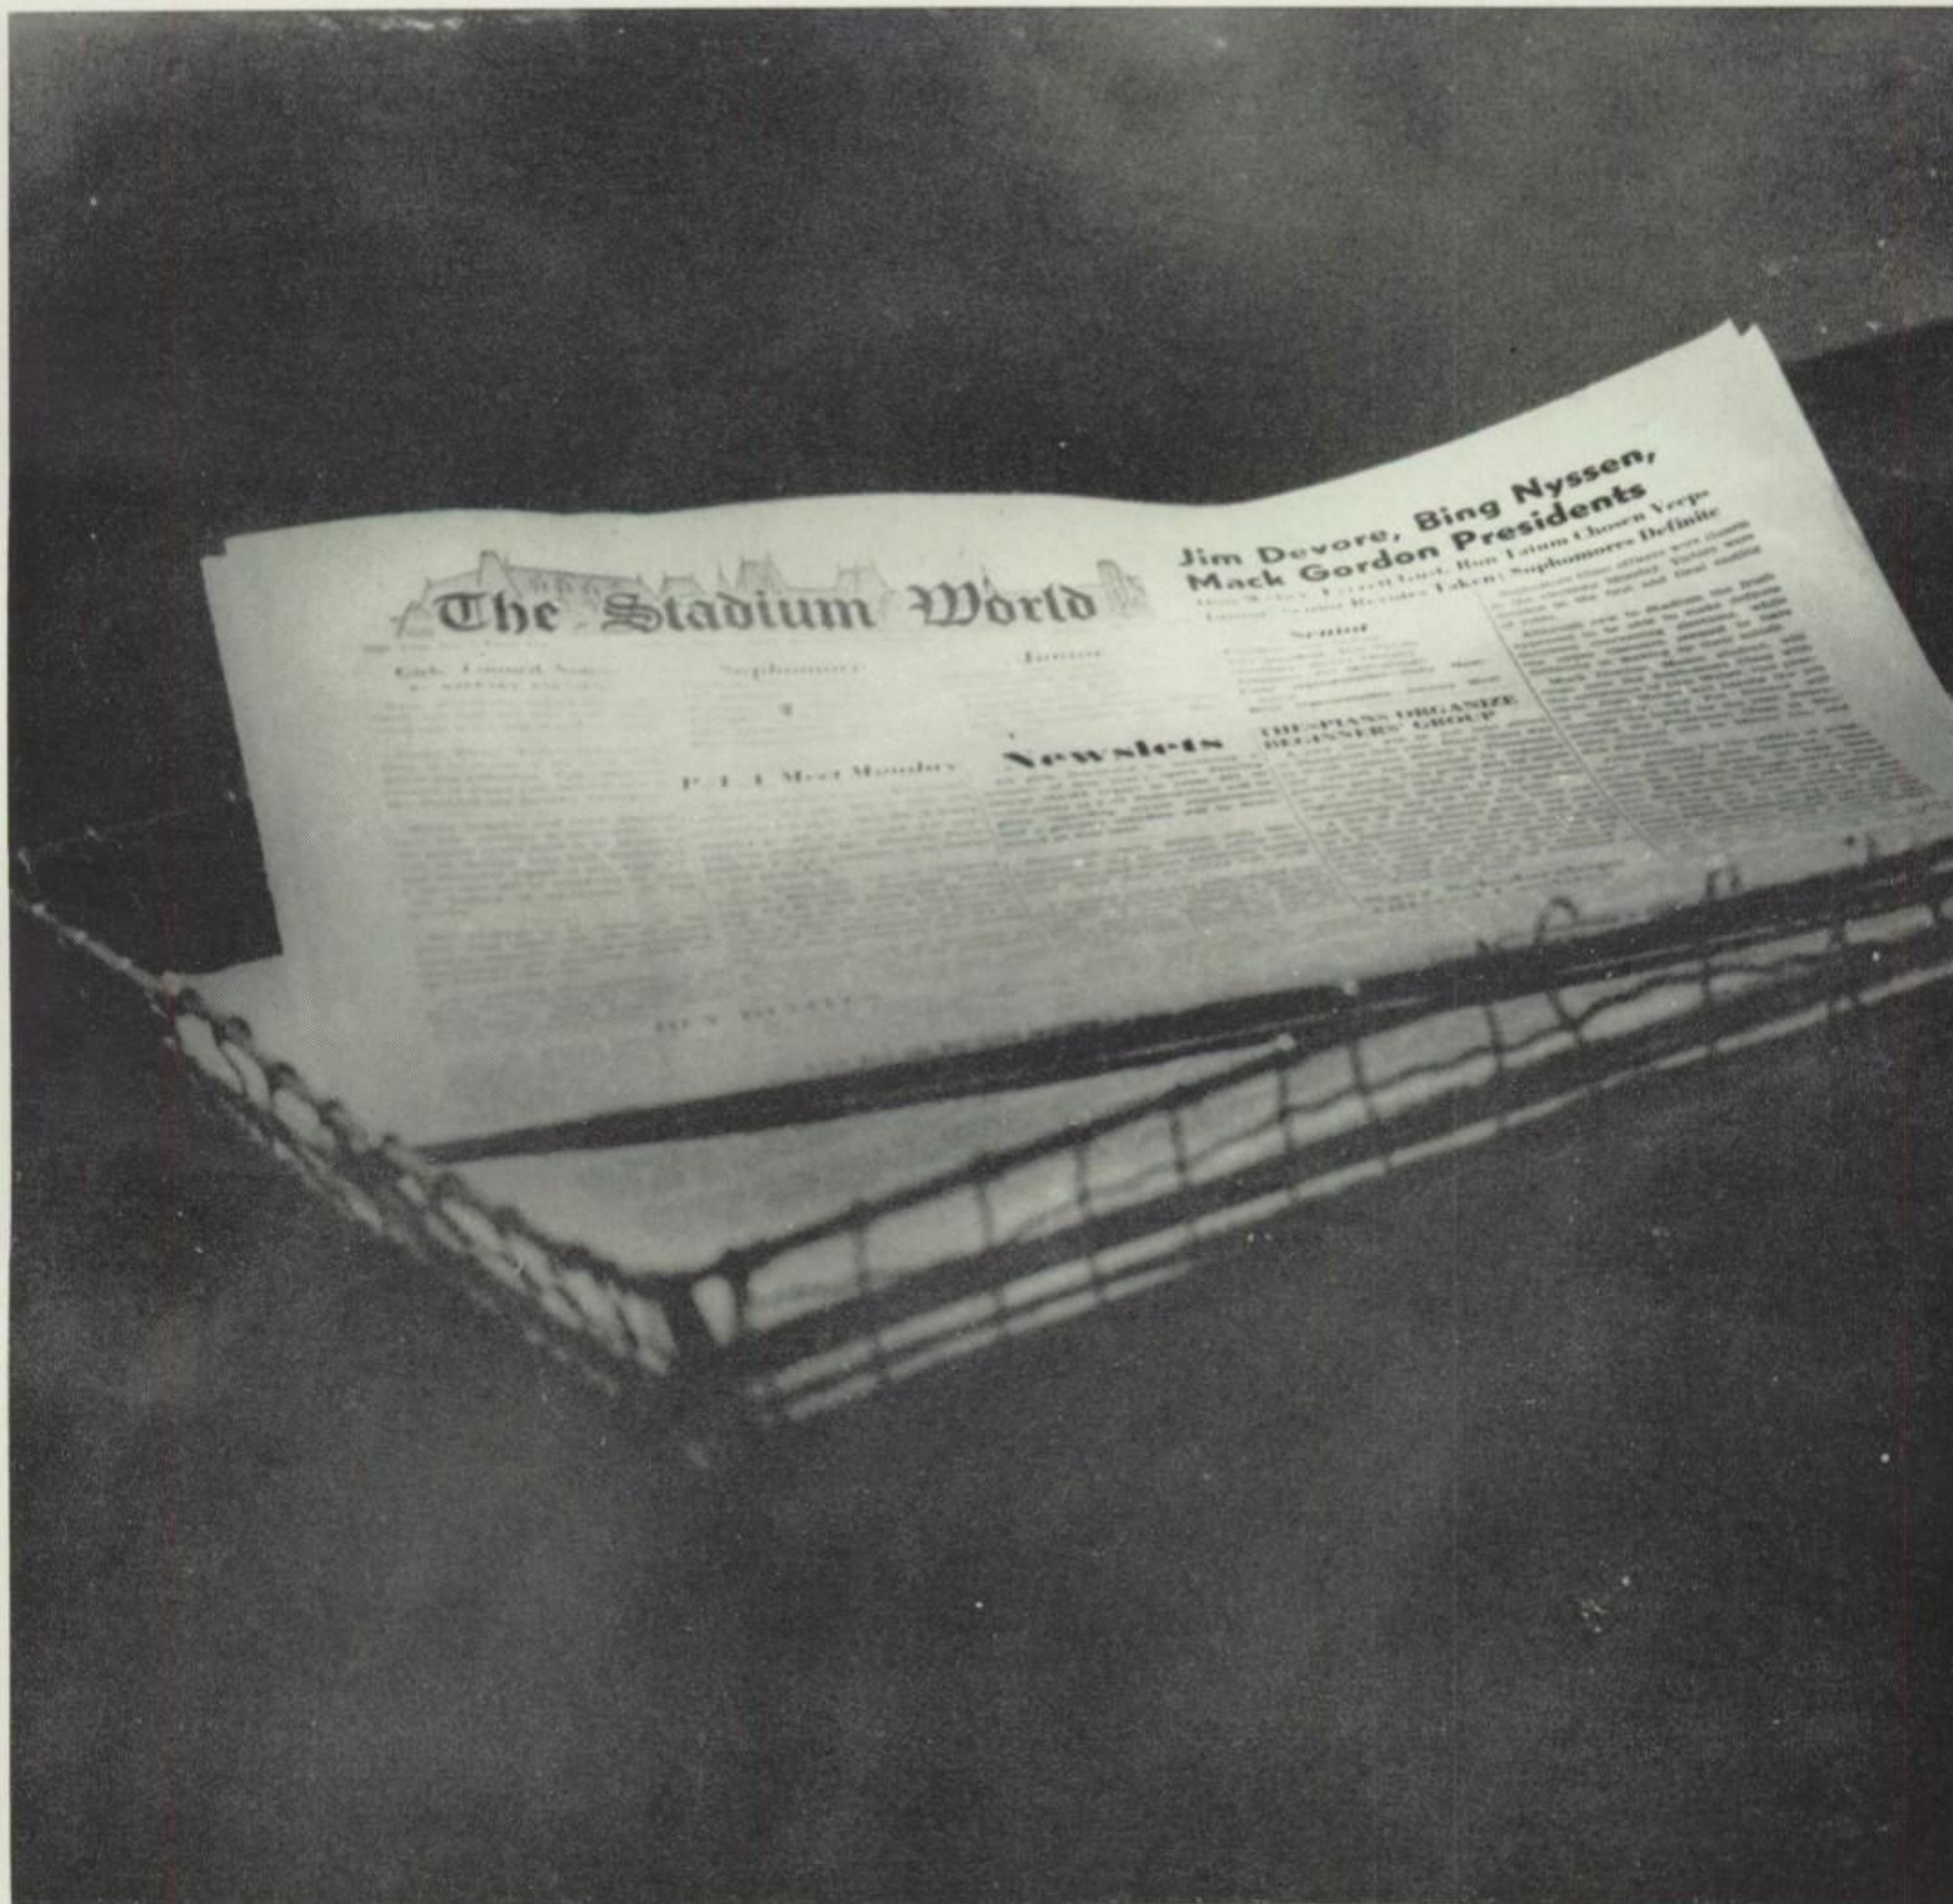

"Speak the speech, I pray you, as I pronounc'd it to you, trippingly on the tongue; but if you mouth it, as many of your players do, I had rather the town-crier spoke my lines." Hamlet said it, but Stadium Thespians took a lesson from the often quoted lines. Through voice and actions, members of the club were determined at tryouts held at the beginning of the year. These tryouts did not limit others who were interested, however, for a junior Thespian group was formed under the direction of Phil Hull.

By accepting only 30 of the 100 who tried out, Thespians gained a membership that contained not only talent but interest.

Plays, monologues and impromptus, along with reviews of local attractions were given at each meeting; all these gave experience to members wishing to try out in April for the annual spring production held in May.

A greater number of people were given the opportunity to bring our leadership ability by the increased size of this year's cabinet. Members were: Linnaea Churchward, president; Jim Moeller, vice president; Dorothy Oberg, secretary-treasurer; Lydia Mechkoff, Frank Girolami, publicity; Caroline Cochrane, Helen Raedisch, typing; Eleanor Martin, Earl Fritz, properties; Margie Berry, Earlene Hoops, play reading, and Janet McCormack, stage.

The rush for Worlds on Fridays . . . Tahoma signing in the spring . . . the membership drives of the Red Cross and P.-T.A.—are familiar scenes in the Stadium picture.

World Staff - FALL AND SPRING

Choosing the editors from the Journalism I class instead of those students taking Journalism 2 was first started this fall with Dave Gimlett in charge as editor in chief. Under the advisorship of Mrs. Cook, journalism instructor, the fall World once again upheld its policy of giving complete coverage of school news and activities and any other news which might be of interest or importance to the students.

Because the staff was one of the smallest in recent years, the cub reporters gave much assistance and as a result were invited for the first time to attend the semi-annual World banquet, which was held January 6 at the Tacoma Hotel.

Many clubs which had booths in the all-school carnival, given by Girls' Club in December, voted to give the proceeds from this event to help support The World.

Assisting Dave Gimlett were Chuck Snyder, news editor; Jacquee Read, feature editor; Boyd Curtiss, sports editor, and Janet Vroman, art editor.

Circulation manager was Bob Gee, while Mable Baldwin handled the exchange papers. Business manager was Lee Garrison and in charge of the ad chasers was Margie Bragdon as ad manager. Jim Hitchcock was the staff photographer.

Heading the spring World staff as editor in chief was Dick Hamby, a junior. Thirteen students of the spring World staff attended the Pacific Slope School Press Convention held Feb. 23 at the University of Washington. One of the students, Dave Gimlett, participated in a round-table discussion on "Seeking New Features for Old." Mrs. Cook talked to a group on "The Responsibility of Staff Membership." The others who attended were: Bob Gee, Mary Gibbs, Stuart Gilbreath, Dick Hamby, Bonnie Jordahl, Del Kahn, Pat McDonagh, Pat McGavick, Eleanor Martin, Sandy Shields and Barbra Willson.

The editor in chief, Dick Hamby, had the following to assist him: Serving as associate editor were Pat McDonagh and Sandy Shields, while Mary Gibbs was news editor and Mary La Rocque, copy editor. The feature page of The World was handled by Bonnie Jordahl and Pat McGavick, who took turns as editor for one-half the semester, each. Del Kahn covered the sports page as its editor.

One of the last issues printed this year was a 12-page off-set type paper featuring pictures of school life and some of those taken in 1899-1910.

The financial side of The World was supervised by Lee Garrison, while Helen Layson was ad manager. Most of the photographs which appeared in each issue were taken by Jim Hitchcock, and Bob Gee managed the circulation.

Tahoma Staff

This year's Tahoma staff had before them the goal of producing a Tahoma that would always be remembered by the Stadium students as one of the finest. Joyce Maule, with the able assistance of Pat Phillips, put forth her best effort to make this goal a reality.

Lynn Hale and Janet Vroman combined their talents to give the book individuality with their clever artistic abilities.

Those on the editorial staff were: Mabel Baldwin, Shirley Barnhart, Margie Berry, Ray Boyle, Linnaea Churchward, Barbara Evensen, Win Jaeger, Allen Lamb, Mary Ann Norton and Jacquée Read.

The finances were efficiently handled by Darlene Rave, business manager. Striving to produce unusual, interesting pictures was Jim Hitchcock, staff photographer.

The senior pictures were taken by Claude Harta, Kennell-Ellis, Lutz, Penthouse, Peterson, Smith and Stoltz Studios. Dave Smith took the group pictures.

Anderson Printing Company and Tacoma Engravers took care of the printing and engraving.

Mr. Shelton, who had charge of the staff for the first time, and Mrs. Cook, editorial adviser, were indispensable to the staff.

Good advisers, a capable staff and hard work were all necessary in producing an outstanding Tahoma.

"Buy your activity ticket now," was the slogan of the fall activity managers. To boost the sale of the student ticket, they stressed how much can be saved by buying an activity ticket early in the year. This year's ticket had the student's picture on it and was purchased all at once, eliminating the weekly sale of stamps.

Students with activity tickets were admitted to such school functions as dances, football and basketball home games, football night, the opera and the Senior Class play. They also received a copy of The World each week, and the ticket served as a down payment on a Tahoma subscription.

Miss Bonney, activity clerk, was the adviser for this group.

Stadium students responded with enthusiasm to the purchase of defense bonds and stamps in roll rooms. Savings stamps were available weekly to every student because of the efforts of roll room managers.

Managers were elected or appointed from all roll rooms and were supervised by Mr. Smith.

P.-T.-A. Representatives

To help the senior Parent-Teacher Association with their various activities, one student from each roll room throughout the school was chosen as P.T.A. representative. Assisting with the membership drive, selling tickets and distributing publicity were a few of their duties.

Officers for the year were: Pat Kohl, president; Gean Lowman, vice president, and Bill Tone, secretary.

Junior Red Cross

"Just two more inches to go, and we will be over the top." Those were the encouraging comments from Junior Red Cross and Royal Hi-Y members, who had stationed themselves beside the March of Dimes thermometer in the front hall. December's Red Cross drive kept many a representative busy collecting the money, which amounted to $144.26, a record breaking amount.

Royal and Stadium Hi-Y's and various girls' clubs filled the Red Cross boxes during March.

Bill Johnson and Gloria Stevens were active members of the city-wide, monthly Red Cross council meetings.

Directing this year's group were: Linnaea Churchward, president; Dennis Heinrick, vice president; Janet Kidd, secretary, and Ed Hurlow, treasurer.

Attendance Clerks

Several girls were selected from volunteers from office training classes and study halls to assist Mrs. Laursen in the attendance office this year.

Included in the numerous duties of the girls were typing, making out state reports, writing cards to absentees who had no phones, and filing.

A separate group of girls helped to collect the absentee slips first and sixth periods.

ATTENDANCE WORKERS

Study Hall Assistants

Proving that they are a help to the study hall teachers, the girls and boys this year took care of checking the attendance with the library, typing rooms and the absentee list.

They were chosen by the teacher in charge at the beginning of the year.

Motion Picture Operators

Helping in the visual education program of Stadium were the student motion picture operators. Each period of every day two boys are assigned to either 321 or Portable 3 to run the projectors. They receive no credit for this service but deserve much credit for the fine work that they do. The operators are under the leadership of Mr. Wadsworth, their adviser.

MOVING PICTURE OPERATORS

STAGE CREW

Stage Crew

"Lights, camera, action!" Behind the scenes of every production, whether large or small, a great deal of work is done to produce an effect through the use of spotlights, settings and lights. The system of giving each member a chance to be in charge of a performance was used again this year. John Taylor was chief at Football Night, while Lowell Wasser was in charge of the Senior Class play and the opera.

The following boys were trained to specialize in these fields: Sid Spurgeon, chief of lights, assisted by Bob Hitchcock; Dave Oathout, chief of spots, assisted by Dick Price; John Taylor, chief of sets, assisted by Jim Doage and Hugh Adams, and Bill Wilkerson, in charge of curtains. Mr. Walter acted as adviser until he was called to serve in the Air Corps. Mr. Evans then took his place.

Lunchroom Crew

Ever wonder how many people it takes to get you your lunch on time?

Under the direction of Miss Miller some dozen or more of the lunchroom crew serve food, the dishes and manage the counters.

The assistants receive a 50-cent lunch and girls receive a four-point major Triple S point.

LUNCHROOM WORKERS

Student Nurses

Taking care of minor illnesses, giving first aid in emergencies and assisting at the immunization and mobile x-ray unit were the services performed by the student nurses this year.

Under the direction of Miss Danielson the girls gave extra time in the Red Cross room as part of their Home Nursing course.

Office Workers

Mrs. Pratt and Miss Bonney have been helped in the office by a group of girls who have efficiently carried out such duties as typing, filing, running errands, answering the telephone, sorting the mail, checking on locker keys and giving out tardy slips.

BOND AND OFFICE WORKERS

Library Assistants

This year's library assistants contributed greatly toward the maintenance of the school library. They carried out the everyday tasks of their work without which the library would have failed to function.

The girls were able not only to gain valuable training in a future vocation but they received Triple S points and sometimes money. Those working in the library as clerks and assistants were under the supervision of Miss Kobetich.

Patrol Boys and Girls

Come rain or shine, the school safety patrol is always on its job of protecting the students by guarding the crosswalks as they come to and from school.

Under the advisership of Mr. Sheedy, their duty began at 8 a.m. and did not end until 3:15 p.m.

Officers for the year were Co-Captains Leona Ramsdell and Paul Taylor, while Dorothy Casebeer, Pat Dille, Joe Myers and Bill Taylor served as patrolmen.

SHOP ASSISTANTS

Shop Assistants

"I think we could use a new hammer and another of these drills," said a shop assistant. For several years now these shop assistants have been looking after the stock of the metal shop, checking in and out the stock and keeping all in repair.

The boys are selected for their willingness to work. Some of the boys often work as assistants during both class and study periods. Their work relieves Mr. Kanarr of numerous activities so that he may devote more time to individual instruction.

RETAILERS CLUB

Supplementing the class work in retail selling, members of the Retailers Club have made field trips to the National Cash Register Company, Rhodes Brothers and other local business firms.

The group also held joint membership meetings with the Lincoln Retailers Club and acted as host for a convention in Tacoma, March 19 and 20, of retail club members from the entire state.

A skating party, a dance and a beach party added a social side to the year's activities.

Retailers Club officers were: President, Bob Johnson (who was also state president); vice president, Ed Hurlow; secretary, Gloria Spray, and treasurer, Sandra Kerr. Mr. Wadsworth was adviser of the group.

A prayed-for touchdown in the last minutes of a decisive game . . . a tense, excited crowd cheering for their team . . . the moment when the ball soars past the fielders for a home run—how can we forget them?

Varsity Football

Winning both the city and Cross-State league titles, Stadium experienced one of the best seasons in the school's history, going undefeated in nine games.

Mr. Levinson again handled the head coaching chores, with the assistance of Mr. Scott and Mr. Beer. Ray Boyle and Bob Powell were co-captains of the squad this year.

After capturing the Grid-Go-Round title, the Tigers proceeded on their regular schedule, winning six straight games before the powerful Seattle Prep eleven held them to a 6-6 tie. A win over Everett and a scoreless tie with Lincoln in the mud-filled Lincoln bowl on Thanksgiving day ended the Bengal schedule.

Reserve Football

Playing only four games, the Bengal reserve squad had a very successful season under Coaches Beer and Scott. They boast an undefeated but once tied record.

The Tigers started out the season with a 16-6 win over Lincoln, then followed it by trouncing Kent-Meridian second team, 13-0. In their second meeting with the Royals from Kent, the reserves were held to a 6-6 tie, but they made up for this by notching a decisive win over Lincoln again, this time by a 19-0 count.

Watching over the Bengal sophs was Mr. Healy, who transferred from Gault this year. Mr. Sheedy aided Coach Healy in his efforts in the 1950 season.

Opening their schedule, the yearlings dropped their game with Bellarmine, 13-4. The rest of the season also proved to be rather hard on the Bengals. Puyallup won a 6-0 tussle, Bellarmine won again 20-6, Lincoln topped the Tiges 32-6, Clover Park won next 14-7, and Lincoln returned to take the sophs' measure 26-12. In their last game the Royals downed Puyallup 6-0.

Elected honorary co-captains were Ray McGallian and Dick Nyssen.

Golf Club

For the purpose of getting as much experience as possible, and just for pure entertainment, the members of Golf Club turned out faithfully this season. Monthly tournaments were held throughout the year at Allenmore and Fircrest golf courses.

Holding the gavel for this season were: Roger Boyd, president; Leland Waite, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Shelton, also varsity golf coach, acted as their adviser.

BOYS' GOLF CLUB

Row 4: John Fassett, Wayne Thompson, Clyde Westerfield, Darrell Nelson, Ron Tatum, Jim Boyd, Jim Gourley, Harry Hokanson, Jim Moody, Walt Gyer, Ted McQuany, Joe Myers.

Intramural Sports

For those boys who like to participate in sports but are not on the varsity or reserve squads, intramural was offered this year sixth period and after school.

Intramural, in the form of swimming, basketball and volleyball, was offered in both spring and fall this year. Mr. Lemmon directed the volleyball and basketball section, while Mr. O'Neel handled swimming.

MR. LEMMON

Varsity Basketball

Tying for first place with Lincoln in the City league and fourth with Lincoln in the Cross-State league, Stadium had a creditable season winning 10 and losing 11 games.

However, in the annual Hoop-Go-Round Stadium came in last, losing to Lincoln 24-13 and Clover Park 22 to 21.

In the Bengals' first regular encounter of the season at Clover Park they had previously been beaten by a 36-32 score. Stadium's losing streak broke with their victory over Highline 59 to 36 and the following day's triumph over Puyallup 51 to 34.

Back into the lost column went the Tiges with an Olympia 46-41 win. Bellarmine kept Stadium at bay next with the Lions on the high end of a 47-36 game. Seattle Prep, Lincoln and Bremerton darkened Stadium's hopes even more as each one stopped the Blue and Gold with respective scores of 39 to 27, 45 to 37 and 42 to 38.

Not to be denied, the Tigers closed the door on Seattle Prep 48-47. Next to fall was Bellarmine 37 to 26, and in a high-scoring duel, Jan. 27, Bellingham's hopes were silenced 67 to 59. Lincoln was made the fourth victim in a row, 52 to 42.

After their impressive string of aforementioned victories Stadium had troubles again. Bellingham won 63 to 50 on their home court; then Everett blanked the visiting Lemmonmen 57 to 46. Bremerton topped the Bengals again, this time 48 to 45.

Everett and Bellarmine fell by the wayside as Stadium topped the Gulls 47 to 45 and the Bells 45 to 36.

Lincoln returned to the Stadium gym and made the hosts the losers 67-55. In the next two games with their Cross-Town rivals Stadium was victor over Bellarmine 32 to 29 and Lincoln 47 to 41.

Losing out in their only opportunity to enter the state class "A" meet, the Castle basketballers lost to Seattle Prep 43 to 35.

Coach Lemmon named Norm Borell, Tom Names and Dick Schlosstein as three of the most consistent scorers of the season.

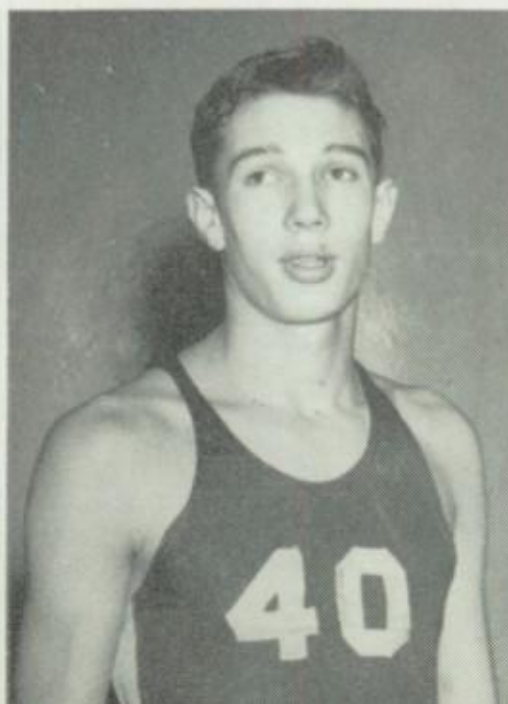

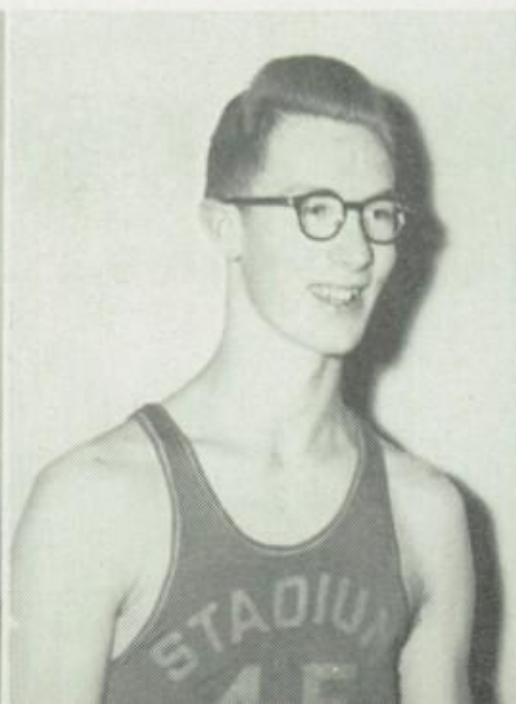

Borell and Names were elected honorary co-captains for the season. Schlosstein was voted the inspirational award.

Reserve Basketball

Mr. Scott's reserve basketballers faired better than this year's varsity, from the percentage standpoint.

Winning 12 and losing only 4 of their regular games, the team captured the city reserve championship.

Elected as honorary co-captains, Everett Gust and Bing Nyssen were two of the outstanding players. Roger Boyd, another key reserve man, won inspirational honors.

Sophomore Basketball

Again Stadium possessed two sophomore teams this year, the Blues and the Golds. The Blues were coached by Mr. Healy, and handling the Golds was Mr. DuBois.

The Blues won two and lost eight in the season's play. Mr. DuBois' boys did better, gaining a second place in the soph league play.

Don Howrie became both honorary captain and inspirational winner at season's end for the Golds. Dave Wiksten and Dick Nyssen were named captain and inspirational winner, respectively, for the Blues.

Rifle Team

This year the Rifle Team members participated in four varsity matches at Point Defiance, with teams from Bellarmine, Lincoln and Clover Park. There were also three second-team matches and three girls' and beginners' matches.

An outdoor match for reserve and varsity teams was held April 8 at the Tacoma Pistol and Rifle Club. Stadium members David White and David Raleigh won first place for varsity and reserve, respectively.

The team entered the final shoulder-to-shoulder championship district match at Point Defiance, April 14. Results of this match were not known at the time of Tahoma publication.

The Rifle Team finished its successful year with a banquet at which a trophy was awarded the Stadium rifle champion.

MR. STREETER

Swimming their way through another successful season, the Stadium mermen won the northern division championship of the Cross-State league and placed second in the state meet in Seattle.

Moving in on the Seattle Y, Stadium was victor over the Queen City swimmers 57 to 18. Everett was swamped by the Bengals next 62 to 13.

Three teams in a row fell next to Coach Streeter's proteges—Highline, 61-14; Mt. Vernon by a close one, 39-36, and Bremerton 50-23.

The only defeat of the regularly scheduled meets occurred with the University of Washington Frosh, 28 to 47.

From then on, until the state meet, it was clear sailing for Stadium. In return meets with Highline and Everett, the Royals edged out their opponents by respective scores of 61-14 and 62-15.

Lincoln was next, sinking before the Castle swimmers 57 to 18. Mt. Vernon lost again 49 to 26 and the Railsplitters were on the short end of a 62 to 13 score in Stadium's pool. Finding themselves again against the Bremerton Wildcats, this time Stadium won 35-29.

Also among their conquests of the season, Stadium's swimmers won the city championship.

Narrowly missing a chance to win the state meet in Seattle, in which 12 teams compete, Stadium was nosed out by Mt. Vernon 69½ to 67½.

Captaining the swimmers the past season were Bob Lewis and Benny Roe. Chosen to head the 1952 squad are Reuben Carlson and Gene Robinson.

Varsity Wrestling

Once again the Stadium wrestlers loomed as one of the most powerful teams in the state. For the third consecutive season the team was awarded the Cammarano trophy to signify their winning of the city championship. Also placed in the trophy case was the Long trophy, signifying the mythical state championship.

Beginning their season on the right foot, the Castlemen took the measure of Fife, 33 to 12.

Next on the docket were the Lincoln Abes. The Bengals dropped the Railsplitters 25 to 18 and then in a return engagement with Fife they blanked the Trojans, 31 to 12.

The one dark spot on the Tiges' excellent record was their match with Burlington. The northerners registered the only defeat against the Bengals, 23 to 19. The following day saw Stadium come back to level Mt. Vernon 35 to 12.

Adding to their victory column, the Castleites took to the road again to conquer Longview by a 28 to 14 score. Sedro Woolley had an even worse time of it, as their journey to the Castle ended in a 31 to 15 defeat.

Co-captains Jim Nelson and Dick Schlichte turned over the reins to Chuck Arnold and Bob Simms, who will lead the wrestlers in their efforts next year. Winning the inspirational award was Wayne Carter.

Deserving no small credit for the team's successes in the past season is Coach Beer, head wrestling mentor.

Entrants representing Stadium in the state tournament were Wayne Carter, Clyde Craig and Bob Simms.

Reserve Swimming

Stadium's reserve swimmers, like the varsity mermen, boasted a good record, winning six meets and losing one.

Two of these were won in competition with the Y.M.C.A. Meeting the Lincoln reserves, Stadium beat them three times. Highline's reserves also fell in their match with the Tiges. The only defeat of the season was handed the juniors by the Seattle Y.

Don Kneip, a former Stadium varsity swimmer and at present a student at the College of Puget Sound, coached the reserves.

Reserve Wrestling

Although they did not have any matches this season, the reserve wrestlers gained much experience working with the varsity wrestlers.

Tennis Team

As the tennis season does not begin until late in the year, there were only two varsity matches when The Tahoma went to the printers.

Overpowering the Lincoln Abes were the Bengals, who won five matches to two. Later journeying to Bremerton, Stadium nosed out the Wildcats, 4-3.

Among the six racketmen competing for varsity positions are David Kelly, Bill Nichols, Bud Olsen, Roland Tabell, Fred Walker and Ozzie Williams.

Head down—arms back—and swish. Teeing off straight down the fairway are Roger Boyd and Tom Names, who headed this year's varsity golf team. The five regulars, Boyd, Jim Moody, Names, Loyal Sorensen and Leland Waite made up the squad with the help of Ed Larson and Gerry Hulscher, principal reserves.

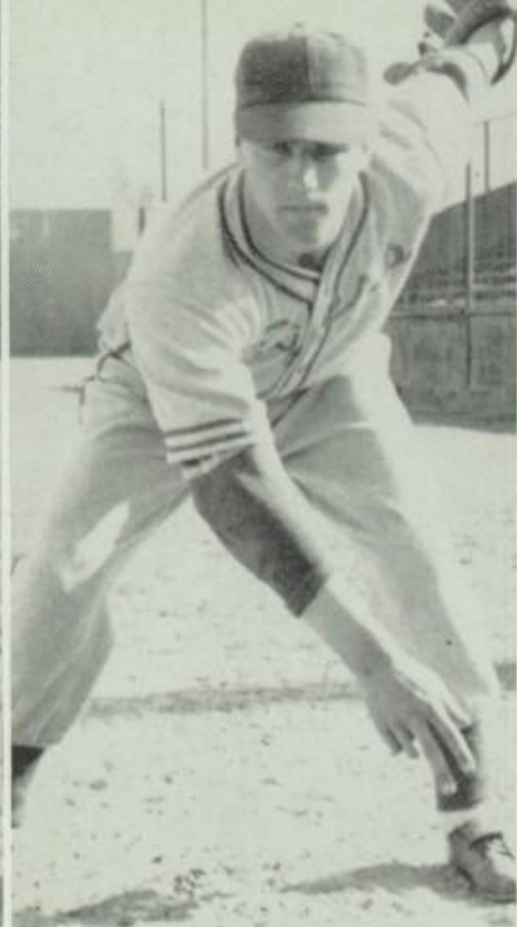

The team boasts of single wins over Bellingham, Olympia, Highline, Lake Washington, Bremerton, Clover Park and a double win over the U. of W. frosh. The linksmen lost close matches to Clover Park, Lincoln, Longview and Vancouver.

The golf team played 20 matches including the X-State tournament, which was held at the Fircrest Golf Club, with Stadium acting as host to Lincoln, Bremerton, Bellingham and Everett. Home and home matches were played with Clover Park, U. of W. frosh, Olympia, Lincoln, Everett, Highline, Bremerton and Bellingham, with single matches with Vancouver and Longview at Fircrest.

MR. SCOTT

Mr. Scott, head baseball coach, had a lot of rebuilding to do when practice started in the spring semester, as he had only a handful of returning lettermen from last year's squad.

At the time this story was written, the Stadium cause was being kept alive with a two-won, two-lost record. Stadium did about as well in their practice games, winning as many as were lost.

In a double header with Centralia, the last two games before the Bengals commenced league play, Stadium won both, 11 to 1 and 6 to 3.

Everett Gust was the winning pitcher for the first game, and Dave Mesler was honored in the second. Gust gave up six hits and Mesler three.

Bremerton's Wildcats met Stadium at Jefferson Park for another double header. The Royals split this one, winning the first 14 to 1 and dropping the follower 11 to 4. Supplying pitching power again were Gust and Mesler; however, Mesler had the best luck, while Bob Lashley and Don Weber were replacement pitchers in the losing game.

Playing at Tiger park, the Tiges went after Bellarmine and came up with the winning score of 1 to 3. In the seven inning game the pitcher for the Lions was nicked for seven hits, while Mesler gave up four.

Traditional rivals of Stadium, the Lincoln Railsplitters, topped the Scottsman 5 to 2 in Tiger Park.

Also on schedule for the varsity baseballers are: Seattle Prep, there; Everett, there; Bellarmine at Tiger Park and Lincoln also at the park.

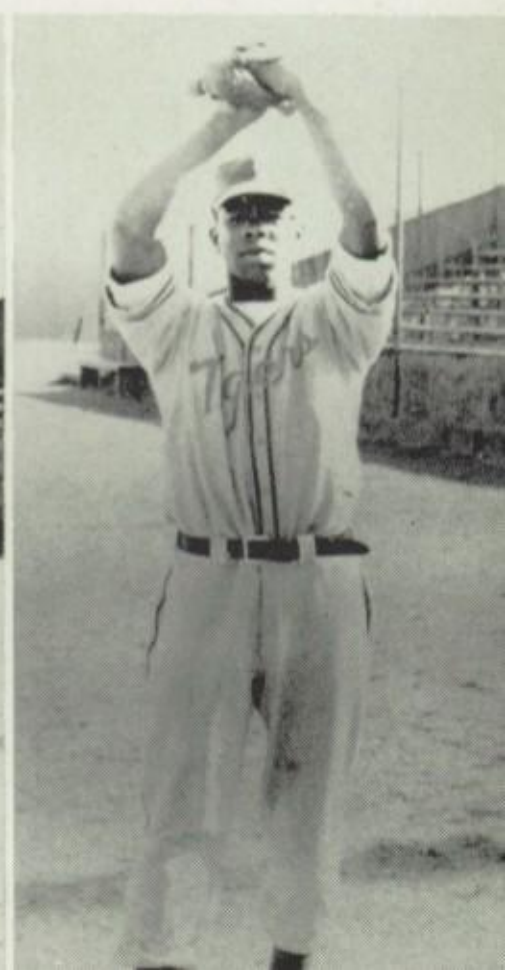

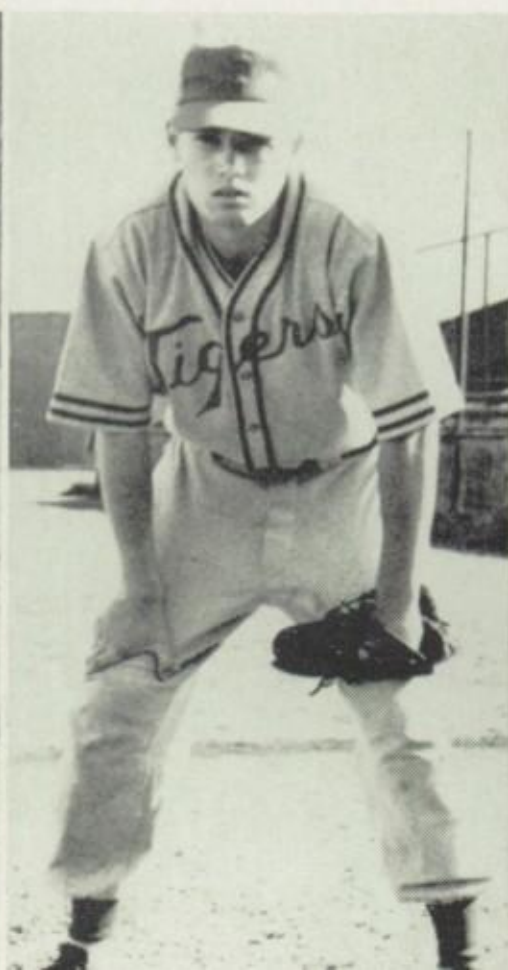

Co-captains this season were Everett Gust and Dick Schlosstein.

Varsity Track

The track team had not finished its schedule of meets when The Tahoma went to press. The Stadium tracksters had participated in five of their regularly scheduled track meets.

Leading off the season, Stadium met Fife and Sumner at Fife in a triangular meet. The Tigers came out on top of that one with a show of 81 points in all. Fife had 31 and Sumner followed with 28 points marked up for their credit.

Another triangular affair occupied Stadium next, but the clouds broke on the Blue and Gold Cindermen. Clover Park won with 63½ points and then Puyallup was next with 47½ and Stadium scored the remaining 29 points.

In their next meet, a dual affair at Everett, Stadium ran into the Seagulls and met defeat 81 to 26.

In the Cross-State meet held in Seattle, Stadium scored 11 points. Outstanding for the tracksters was Keith Walker.

On May 7 when Stadium met with Lincoln, the Tigers won the Penn Relays by 4 to 1. Stadium took first in 880, mile, four-mile and medley, Lincoln winning the two-mile.

Outstanding so far this year were Keith Walker, Tony Corvin, Johnny West and the Co-Captains Dick Baker and Kay Swanson.

Volleyball Champs

Volleyball champions this year were members of Gerri Chase's senior after-school team. They defeated Carol Uebel's team with a score of 26-21.

Members of the winning team were Janice Carlbom, Joan Fullaway, JoAnn Johnson, Margaret Moberg, Mary Ann Norton, Joanne Olding and Bev Shotwell.

Managing the volleyball teams was Joanne Olding, with the assistance of Ruth Birkenstock, Linnaea Churchward, Marilyn MacInnis and Janet McCormack.

Boy and Girl Managers

Receiving no glory for his indispensable work, the hard-worked manager goes about his innumerable tasks. The boy managers take care of equipment, look after provision of towels for the players and keep records. In addition to those tasks the girl managers and their assistants referee, supervise and schedule all after-school sports, and direct and test Dianas' earning points for hobby sports.

Dale Ingalls managed this year's boys' crew.

Girl Student Leaders

These Dianas are gaining both valuable training and experience when the teachers choose them to work each semester in the gym, teaching them to care for the equipment and assist in teaching exercises, dancing and swimming.

The student leaders earn a point toward their athletic award and are rewarded for their work with a gold and blue shield that is to be worn on the right sleeve of the Stadiana sweater with the number of the years served. They also will receive major Triple S points.

GIRLS' STUDENT LEADERS

Row 1: Bonita Carlisle, Ida Mae Creed, Denamae Wold, Marilyn House, Janet McCormack, Genevieve Johnston, Lorna Gladstone, Ruth Birkenstock. Boy Student Leaders

Aiding the teachers with their gym classes are qualified student leaders, selected by their gym instructor. To become one of these student leaders, they must complete the usual year of sophomore health and physical education, plus a special semester of training under Mr. O'Neel, adviser.

Their duties consist of checking roll, assisting in the shower and towel rooms and supervising strength tests.

Winning a letter in athletics (thus earning one stripe) and being a girl would make you eligible to join Stadiana, girls' athletic organization. A Dina may obtain her letter by either hiking it out on the roads, sweating it out on the gym floor, or making good use of the girls' pool.

Stadiana met in 119 every other Monday. This is the room where the ideas developed that made two first places for their club. One was in the pep parade, where they took top honors, and also in their Football Night contribution of a skit, where they won first place.

Officers this year were: President, Elizabeth Regester; vice president, Mary Ann Norton; secretary, Joyce Maule; treasurer, Barbara Espeland, and sergeant-at-arms, JoAnn Johnson.

Royal Fins

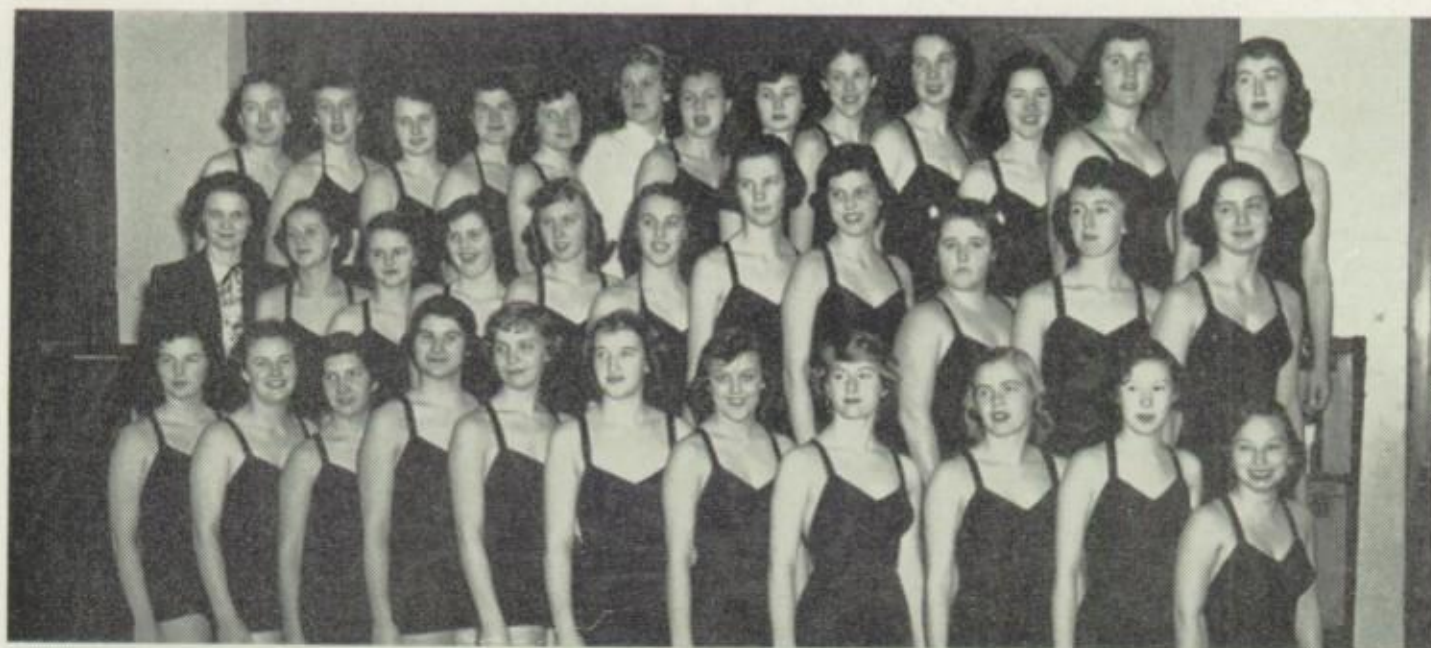

Swimming at Madigan Hospital for the wounded veterans and putting on their annual pageant were the activities which occupied much of the Royal Fins' time. A picnic was held at the end of the school year.

Royal Fins is a branch of Stadiana and those participating in this sport may earn one athletic team point towards their award. Any girl may try out for the rigid tests and those who pass are on probation until they pass further tests.

Instructor for this year was Mrs. Helen Simmons. Acting as faculty advisers were Miss Minton and Miss Blaser, while Mary Ann Norton was student adviser.

Girls' Swim Team

Races are held in the girls' pool once a year with the senior, junior and sophomore teams turning out. This year's race had not been held when The Tahoma went into publication.

Captains for this year's teams, however, had been elected. For the seniors, Carol Botten; juniors, Joan Smith, and for the sophomore team, Louise Landers.

Swimming manager for this year was Mary Ann Norton; and her assistants were Lorna Gladstone, Barbara House, Beverly Shotwell and Joan Smith.

Hike Leaders

Up Saturday morning as early as on school days, many sleepy girls can be found walking about five miles for their athletic points. The hikes in fall and spring were each led by two different girls, chosen by the cabinet of Stadiana and the adviser, Miss Minton.

Senior girls had first chance to sign up for leading hikes; some junior girls were also chosen this year. The hike leaders were: Carol Ahl, JoAnn Brooks, Barbara Espeland, Diane Fetterolf, Carmen Flaks, Janet Griffin, Marilyn House, Ann Mader, Jean Middleton, Anne Mueller, Mary Ann Norton, Pat Phillips, Elizabeth Regester, Helen Raedisch, Grace Seto, Alice Wilson, Eleanor Wilson and Jennifer Youngman.

These girls helped to make the hikes interesting as well as beneficial.

PIN WINNERS

Row 1: JoAnn Johnson, Peggy Lee, Janet Griffin, Mary Ann Norton, Elizabeth Regester, Janet Vroman. Row 2: Margaret Moberg, Marilyn MacInnis, Beverly Shotwell, Linnaea Churchward, Janice Carlbom.

Pin Winners

"When do we play our next game?" "Do you think we will reach the finals?" These were but a few of the questions that ran through the minds of those girls who were "out to get their pin." The gold pin, which represents three years of after-school gym activities, is the highest award a girl can earn.

The pin is given to the girl who has earned her first- and second-year athletic letters and is a member of Stadiana, along with earning six athletic points during her senior year.

Seniors were somewhat at a disadvantage this year without sixth period senior gym, but some dozen girls were not to be discouraged and went on to earn the coveted athletic pin.

Pin winners were: Janice Carlbom, Linnaea Churchward, Janet Griffin, Peggy Lee, Ann Mader, Margaret Moberg, Mary Ann Norton, Pat Pennington, Elizabeth Regester, Bev Shotwell and Janet Vroman.

Riding Club

Galloping over meadows and jumping over hurdles were the horses of the members of Riding Club. As a branch of Stadiana, the club has only one officer, Barbara House, president. The girls were unable to ride at Woodbrook this year, so they rode at Point Defiance.

The riders had a booth in the Girls' Club Carnival and have participated in many activities under the direction of Miss Minton, adviser.

Outstanding Basketball Players

Chosen as outstanding basketball players for this year were: Mary Jane Algeo, Ida Mae Creed, Carol Corvin, Char Crossman, Ruth Ann Hopkins, Jo Ann Johnson, Gloria Jorgensen, Janet Kidd, Peggy Lee, Pat Mahoney, Donna Mani, Clara Mattson, Doreen McNeill, Mary Ann Norton, Elizabeth Regester and Jeannie Tudor.

The manager and her assistants select the girls they think would make outstanding basketball player prospects and they hold two games after school to determine which girls should win the honor. Manager for this year was Ruth Ann Hopkins. Assisting her to referee, Ruth Ann chose Joan Johnson, Margaret Moberg and Janis Pinder.

Badminton Champs

Elizabeth Regester defeated Margaret Moberg to win the fall badminton championship. Since there is no senior gym this year, all tournament were held after school. The spring matches were held too late in the spring to publish the results.

Manager of the badminton tournaments was Joyce Maule, assisted by Betty Frangen, Margie Jensen and Pat McGavick.

BADMINTON CHAMPS

Sally Nelson, Betty Frangen, Elizabeth Regester, Margaret Moberg.

SPEEDBALL CHAMPS

Row 1: Marsha Davis, Ruth Ann Hopkins and Ida Mae Creed. Row 2: Bonnie Jordahl, Meryle Hamilton and Gloria Jorgensen.

Speedball Champs

Passing, kicking, running their way over the goal line, Marsha Davis and her all-junior seven won the championship game by a score of 25-4.

Winning over Gretchen Howe's sophomore team were: Ida Mae Creed, Nora Cummins, Marsha Davis, Meryle Hamilton, Ruth Ann Hopkins, Bonnie Jordahl, Gloria Jorgensen and Joan Sherman.

Speedball, the first of the fall sports, had a large turnout with six games being played by the winners for the championship.

Basketball Champs

BASKETBALL CHAMPS

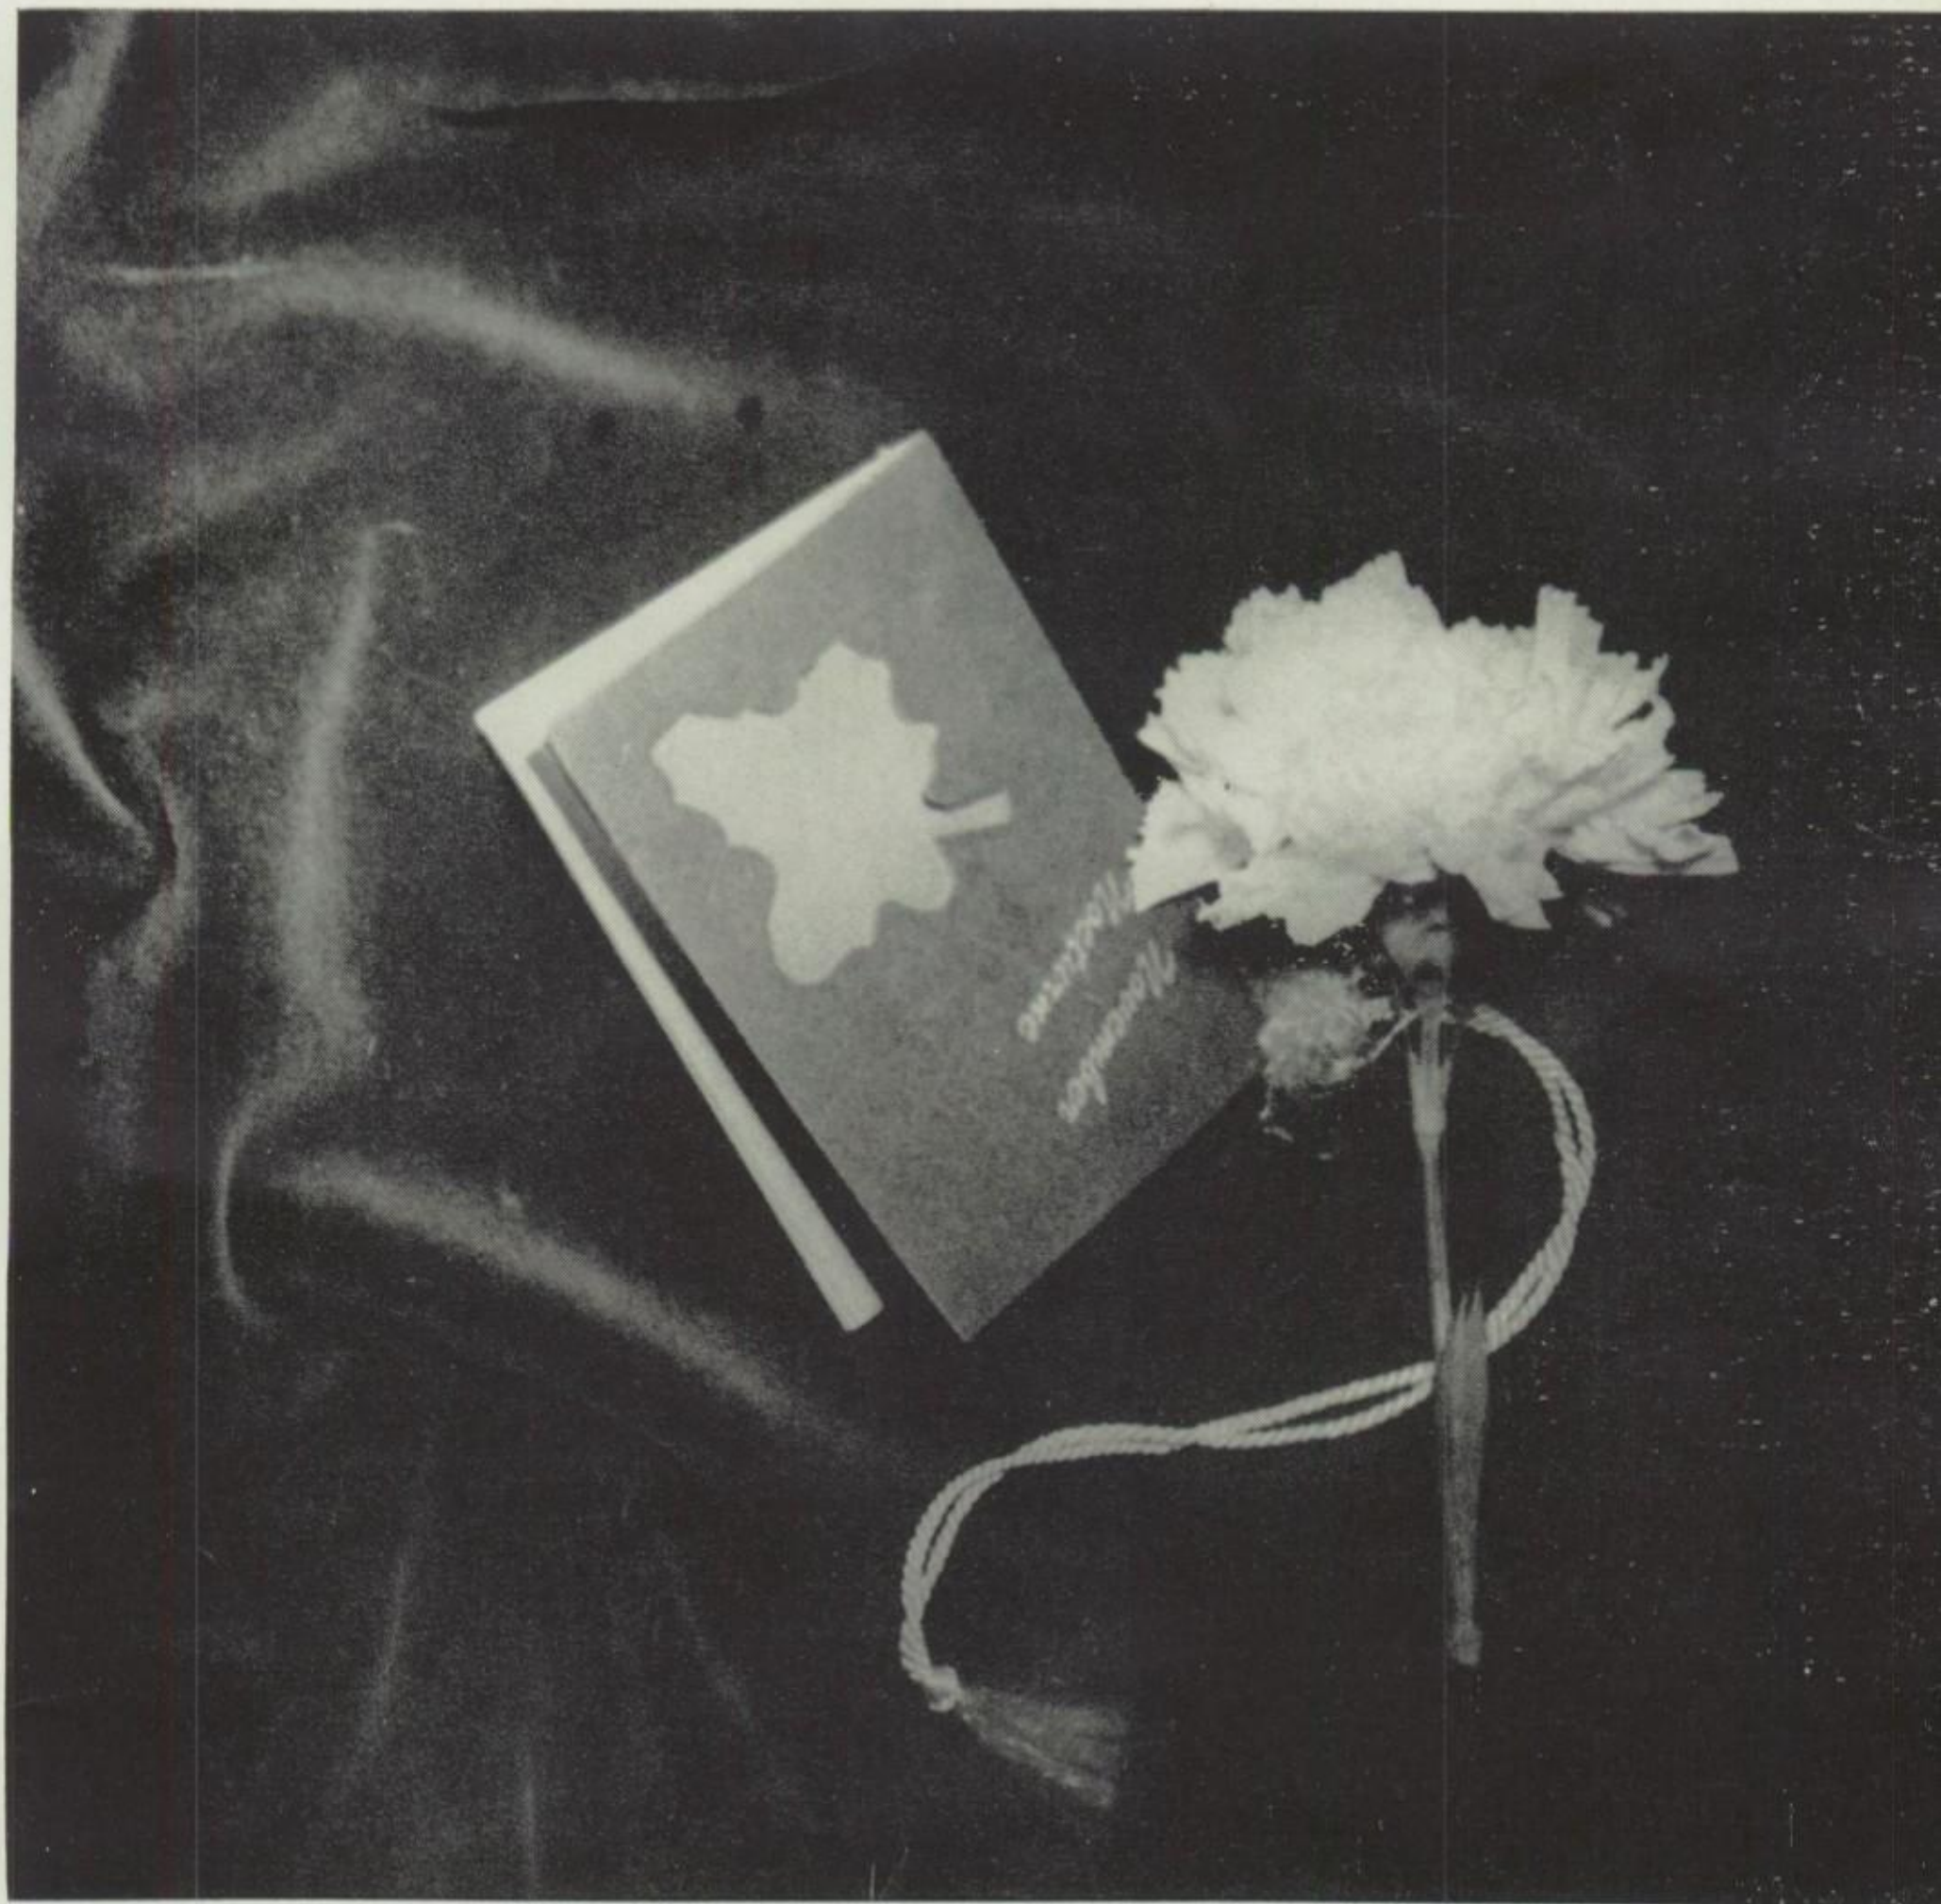

Mary Ann Norton, Janet Vroman, Elizabeth Regester, Mary Jane Algeo, Margaret Moberg, Peggy Lee.

The seniors do it again! Three years in a row now seniors have captured the coveted spot as basketball champs. Margaret Moberg's team battled it out with Donna Mani's sophomore team in the playoff. The sophomores proved they knew what basketball was all about, by the near tie score of 21-20.

Members of the winning team were: Mary Jane Algeo, Marjie Jensen, Peggy Lee, Margaret Moberg, Mary Ann Norton, Elizabeth Regester and Janet Vroman.

Basketball manager this year was Ruth Ann Hopkins; her assistants were: Ida Mae Creed, Margaret Moberg and Janis Pinder.

From the Howdy assembly and Turkey Day game in the fall . . . to the opera and May dance in the spring—a round of activities fill the calendars of Don and Anna Stadion.

Dear Bob,
Well, it's really been fun having you in Comp with Evans. You
I don't think any of us will forget how we've all battled it!! "Evans".
Lots of Luck to you Always

Joan Howard

Dear Bob,
It's been just wonderful you being in the same Comp. class ^{with} me. Well Bob I want you to know I think you are just wonderful and always stay that way.
hoads of back
Nina Grunden

I was always picking a swell but I got even on me by winning your money. I am your friend and ever
 J. J. Beach

Dear Bob

Well it sure has been fun in here doing algebra for me. (or trying to)
I sure hope you have loads of luck and success, not only this summer but always. Take care of yourself Bob

Lots of luck

Jack Eldridge

Dear Bob?

Its been lots of fun this year in comp and band (1 semester), I was hoping that you have lots of fun this summer, and be sure to come back next year.

Lots of luck

Led McQuary

Bob
I got your note and a letter from B. I. of you saying you had won a football game
I was so happy
lots of love
Jack to you Love
Jack

Dear Bob-
I don't know how very well but we both have suffered through W. Hist. class. I know your as well as I. I know your hoads of Luck
Love
Dawn Falden

Hi Bob
 I have had a lot of fun with you in algebra. Thanks for helping with my work sometimes.
 Ron.

Hi Bob -
 It has been nice to have you in the same math class as me. Good luck and have lots of fun this summer.
 Jeff Burman

Bob -
 Hears [hoping] you have as much fun in your senior year as I have.

Good Return

Bob -
 lots of luck kid
 to a swell future
 I've been fun
 in class with you
 Gerald Paulson

Bob
 Lots of luck in the future to a swell kid. It's been fun being
 in class with you.
 Frances
 Leberg

Hi Bob -
 I hope you have a great summer and lots of fun
 with your friends.
 I hope you have a great summer and lots of fun
 with your friends.
 I hope you have a great summer and lots of fun
 with your friends.

Good luck
to a good guy.
Ronald Sangle

I couldn't get along without you in Algebra.

Good luck. Gerald
Ambrose

Hi Bob!

It sure has been fun having you in Comp. You have been a great help to all of us. Have lots of fun this summer and will probably see you next year.

Dick Green

Dear Bob,
will we sure had to struggle to get out of W.H. class, but we finally made it. Hope I see you around next year. Lots of luck in the future + have fun this summer.
a friend,
Lee Green.

Hi Bob,
It been fun with Mrs Evans
this year in Comp. I don't know you very well, but I know you a swell guy.
lots of luck in the years to come.
Mike Matern

Hi Bob

well I haven't really known you for too long but in the short time that I have, I feel that I have really gotten to know you. I want to wish you all of the luck in the world for you are really a fine person.
Loads of Luck
"Chuck"
